

Montréal, April 22, 2005

To all 2005 Montreal's White Party Week artists, partners and participants:

The organizers of Montreal's White Party Week would like to thank you warmly for your generous and talented contribution in the success of this 11th edition. The memory of this event will remain etched in collective memory. Once again, this gathering met with outstanding success, with an attendance increased by thousands during Montreal's White Party. You all created this exceptional ambience which now contributes to building the international reputation of this gathering, and we wish to more specifically salute the genius of the DJs who graced us with their presence this year.

Montreal's White Party

Approximately 15,000 enthusiastic participants gathered at the Palais des Congrès for Montreal's White Party and launched into the marathon party that brings together everything that Montreal and the neighbouring scenes count as night owls, tireless dancers and grandiose party lovers. In a magical decor, an outstanding program featuring international electronic music talents will have largely satisfied the audience's expectations. While the incomparable and prestigious DJ Tiësto launched a wind of trance decibels on the room of the same name, relayed by talented DJ Benny Benassi, DJ Preach and DJ Marco G, famous DJ David Morales, DJ Peter Rauhofer and Deep Dish, not to mention our local DJs, DJ Bruno Brown and DJ Jester, made the crowd go wild in the House Room, accompanied by queens of the night Léa-Lorien and Mado. As a result, those 15 hours of partying perfectly illustrated the spirit of this great gathering culture, associated to electronic music, energy and enthusiasm deployed for the occasion in an outstanding manner.

The events of the Week

A wind of sound whirls was unleashed early on Montréal and area with the presence of a horde of DJs from every musical horizon that came with the clear intent of warming up the ambience at Montreal's White Party Week. Hustler White, White lies, Noche Blanco, White Lantern, Carte Blanche and White Sleaze T-Dance nights, further to the Warm-Up, the Perfect Sundays pre-party and the White Hot Hip Hop Night, and the now famous official after, Off White with DJ David Morales who managed to keep more than one thousand people on the Stereo's dance floor from midnight to 3 a.m. the Tuesday morning composed a calendar filled to the brim with events that met with rising success.

Coverage and media

Montreal's White Party captured the attention of the media who generously covered all events. Montreal's White Party now benefits from an enviable status on the international scene, which contributes to ensuring its success which Montreal can now leverage for its promotion

Once again, thanks to all our artists, partners, collaborators, sponsors and the audience for their appreciated support. We invite you all to join us again next year for the 12th Montreal's White Party Week that will take place from April 13 to 17, 2006, and whose main event will be held once again at the Palais des Congrès de Montréal in a new and revisited space...
